- The Munchies. Freshman Julia Glorioso buys Shock Tarts at concessions. Glorioso says, "Byrd is a very big school, but it is very easy to get around. I feel the more people we have, the more we tend to intimidate other schools." Due to the large number of students, the concessions are sold on each floor of every building by the Academy students.
- Weighing It Out. Freshmen Emily Pizzolato and Keshia Ashley weigh different objects on the triple-beam balance in Mr. Harris' 9th grade physical science class. Ashley says, "I like science because we get to perform various experiments, and it helps us to understand the lesson." Science classes at Byrd are more often hands-on to help students learn better.
- Stats & Figures. Junior Dock Voorchies checks his homework answers in Ms. Campbell's statistics class. Voorhies says, "statistics is a hard class, but I keep busy because I also take trig. The classes are difficult, but I always manage to do well in both." Statistics is a class for juniors and seniors. The class focuses on probablity and other statistical matters.

Spirited

· Shining Bright. Junior Jacob Kerr smiles to the crowd as his float passes by on the track. Kerr says, "Byrd is a great school. There is something about it that makes me say I'm proud to go to Byrd." Byrd stands out from other schools because of the uplifting spirit of students.

- SENIORS!. Senior Melissa Hall vells out the battle cry at the Shreve pep rally. Hall says, "The rivalry between Byrd and Shreve is very crucial. We are always hype and ready to beat them!" The traditon of wearing and decorating the school in camo started many years ago when Shreve became our rival.
- Katherine Rosbottom cheer on the sidelines at a football game. Crain says, "I love to cheer at the games because it gets the crowds pumped about winning the game." Cheerleaders keep the crowds yelling, so it will pump up the players in the game.

· Gator Gumbo. Freshman Erica Osburne holds her Yellow Jacket pillow as she yells for Tony Live at Five on Channel 12. Osburne says, "Waking up so early was hard, but it didn't stop me from screaming my heart out!" Channel 12 chose to have a pep rally at Byrd where many students came to cheer on the football players for the Shreve game.

As we entered school on August 17th, a week later than last year, students wondered how this year would unfold. Seniors were excited at the thought of getting out on May 9th. Knowing this would be their last year, seniors began to show their school spirit with banner painting on the nights before each football game. Having finally received their driver's licenses, juniors were happy to see the teachers get their own parking lot so students would have more places to park. Sophomores were distraught over the new standardized LEAP tests that added World History as another subject. Freshmen were shaken up by the addition of the 3rd floor Science Building that kept them in the same building most of the day. This year we had a long awaited Homecoming parade that was put on by Top Jackets. Jack the Jacket got a new costume, and we almost beat the number one-ranked team, Evangel. In so many words, Byrd can be described as huge, busy, and unpredictable.

Diverse

Intelligent

Honored

- · Reflections. Senior Brandon Johnson picks his hair straight in the mirror. Johnson says, "I like to wear my hair different every week because I love to give people something to look at." The students at Byrd are as diverse as they come. Walking down the halls, one can see khakis', afros, skirts. and any number of things.
- Shining Star.
 Senior Andrew
 Olsan and Leigh
 Ann Collinsworth accept their "crowns" for being honored as National Merit Semi-Finalist at a special party in the Purple and Gold room.
 Olsan says, "It was quite an honor winning such a prestigious award, but the best part was wearing the hat."
- Standing
 Proud. Senior
 Michael Edwa-rds receives his pin for
 Colonel of the ROTC
 Brigade from his father, Thomas Edwards, who is a retired Army Major.
 Michael Edwards says,
 "It was a great honor to be chosen as Colonel. It meant a lot to me to receive this award from my father."

Hands-on Activity. Community Christmas was held on December 7, 2000 in the Girls' Gym. Art teacher Lynda Rowland coordinates the event each year for the children within our community. Various clubs help make Community Christmas special for the children by passing out presents, providing funandgamesandfood and snacks. This year, one of the favorite games was the French Club's Eiffel Tower Hoop Toss. Children who were vertically challenged got a helpinghand from their Key Club and/or Z-club escort. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Klaus, a.k.a. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris, distributed gifts to the excited children as Gusher staff members snap Polaroid pictures to capture the special moment. Another popular booth was sponsored by the Art Club. Senior Jessica Mabry paints the hand of a small girl from Wilkinson Terrace. Mabry worked for the Art Club painting young children's faces and hands. Mabry says, Tenjoyed painting faces and getting to spend time with the children. I felt good inside knowing I put smiles on lots of kids faces."

In so many words...

The new school year started a week earlier than any year before, and students began to fall back into their old routine. Old FRIENDSHIPS were rekindled as people began to SOCIALIZE with those they hadn't seen all summer. As the year began to progress with great speed, everyone got more INVOLVED and joined clubs and organizations that suited their interests. As the freshmen began to get adjusted, the sophomores just enjoyed not being freshmen anymore, and the upperclassman basked in their new freedom and realized their new RESPONSIBILITIES. Even though it was often challenging to make time for homework, studying, jobs, friends, and family, everything found its time and place. Despite the hard work and dedication required, students enjoyed their year, making the most of every moment. The average Byrd student's LIFE is packed every hour of every day. Never all work and no PLAY, every Jacket had a have a good time. Everyone enjoyed their HIGH SCHOOL years, the last and longest years of their ADOLESCENCE.

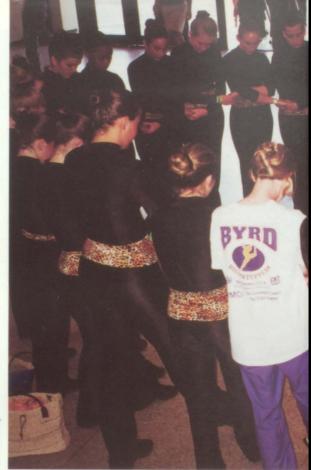

Wishin' and Prayin'. The danceline takes amoment to stop and pray as a group with their sponsor, known as 'Mrs. B', before beginning the competition at camp. Praying makes me more secure, and it forms unity amoung us' says Junior Hannah Harrison.

True Colors. Senior Melissa Hall struts her stuff at flagline camp this summer. 'I really enjoy Flagline. Mrs. Cox is a great sponsor and I like hanging around with all the other girls. We practice very hard and it is worth it when we perform,' says Hall.

Best Buddies. Junior Andrew Roach and Senior Jennifer Pilgreen visited Baton Rouge for CCE (Christian Community Experience) this summer to fellowship with other Christians. "I love CCE because I can become friends with so many different kinds of people while becoming closer to God," says Pilgreen.

The Rock. Sophomores Madison Adams and Meagan Quinn visit Pier 39 in San Francisco, California while on choir tour with the Broadmoor Baptist youth choir. Alcatraz Island, which they toured, lies less than a mile behind them. On the trip, the group did mission work in one of the most dangerous places in America, downtown San Francisco, which is known as the Tenderloin. "The trip to San Francisco was incredible. We not only toured, but we worked in a Rescue Mission for five days and got to tell others about God," says Adams.

Tackets press on at summer camps

Rattle and Roll. Seniors Lauren Wilkerson and James Godfrey proudly display the damage the bus driver did on their way to yearbookcamp. Bus rides can turn into very scary situations when the driver decides he's out to get the whole town of Denton' says Wilkerson. "The whole town was out to get us," says Godfrey.

Pep in their Step. These pep squad girls learn what it means to be a true Stingerette at the camp the JV. cheerleaders led. Pep Squad camp was a great place to meet other freshmen's ays Freshman Farrah McNabb.

Aloha. Juniors Taylor McCutcheon, Brandon McGovern, Natalie Hunsicker, Brandon Tipton, Senior Shannon Shea, and Juniors Jacob Kerr and Nick Leuck and Cynthia Talley hike up a trail in the lusicious islands of Hawaii. With their sponors Ms. Williamson and Dr. Bazer, the group got to spend two weeks in Hawaii in intensive Biology study. The trip to Hawaii is something I will never forget. We had so much fun meeting other kids from California, says Tipton.

Flashbacks

At yearbook camp this summer, while we were sleeping on the 14th floor, someone in the building was steaming their clothes at two in the morning, which caused the fire alarm to go off. We had to run down the stairs and stand on the steps for what seemed like

The best thing about this summer was being with my boys:
Taylor Goodman, Zach and Kenneth Favrot, and David Cardneaux. We all went to Florida for a week for vacation.

-Carter Hamm, 11

The worst thing about summer was missing all my school friends that I wouldn't be able to see for three months. But the break went by fast, and I'm really glad to see them again. It got pretty hot, too.

-Krystal Rogers, 11

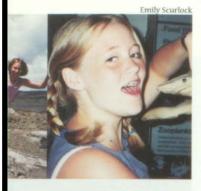

Spirit of C.E. Byrd. The varsity cheerleaders traveled to Alexandria, Louisiana, for campthissummer. Seniors Courtney Crain, Bel * Leejay, Shannon Taylor, Katherine Rosbottom, and Britney Butler take a break in one of the dorm rooms. Crain says, 'Cheerleading camp was a blast' It was great to get closer as a group.'

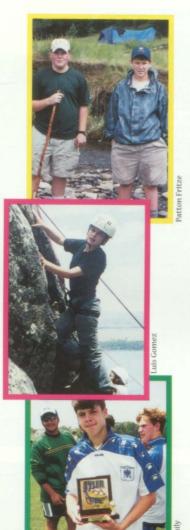

• Hey, Hey, Hey! Junior Reneshia Bedford and her mother visited Jellystone Park in Virginia Bedfordsays, It was cool to see Yogi Bear and we had a lot of funtaking pictures: • Dancing in the Crater. Sophomores Jacqueline Adams and Jonette Peretik flew to Hawaii with Byrd graduate Nicole Adams for Dance Express. One day they visited a crater in Mount Kilauea Adams says, The background reminded us of the moon, so we acted like there was no gravity. • Mmm, Mmm, Good. Freshman Bre Hemphill visited Dolphin Island in Gulf Shores, Alabama. I was acting like I was eating that fish on exhibit, 'says Hemphill.

Island Fun. Junior Brandon McGovern, a gymnast, and about eighteen other Byrd students went to Hawaii with Ms. Williamson for a course in marine biology. McGovernsays, TwastryingtoteachNick(Leuck) how to stand on his hands the whole time we were there. This is the best he could do?

"What has brown hair, brown eyes, and goes 'Thump, Thump,' Me! Rolling down a hill while camping with my friends John Henderson, Travis Harrison, and Patton Fritze."
- Dave Davis, 10

"Climbing the mountain was challenging, but the view was beautiful. Such determination always brings smiles." -Vjosa Alidema, 11

We won the soccer tournament in Tyler, Fexas. Winning's a great feeling." -Will Frierson, 11

Out on the water. Juniors Ashley Hutchinson, Marissa Guy, Holly McKenzie, and friend Catherine Murphy took a relaxing trip to Lake Travis in Austin, Texas. McKenzie says, "It was fun to just hang out and spend time with the girls."

Super Dude. Junior Andrew Roach went to the beach with his youth group. Roach says, 'This summerwas great. Ihadanawesome time on trips, hanging with friends, and showing off the SUPER powers. Oh, yeah!'

What's the Word?

This year, I spent my summer break in Germany preparing for my exchange year in Shreveport. It was a cold summer there, something my friends in Shreveport can't imagine.

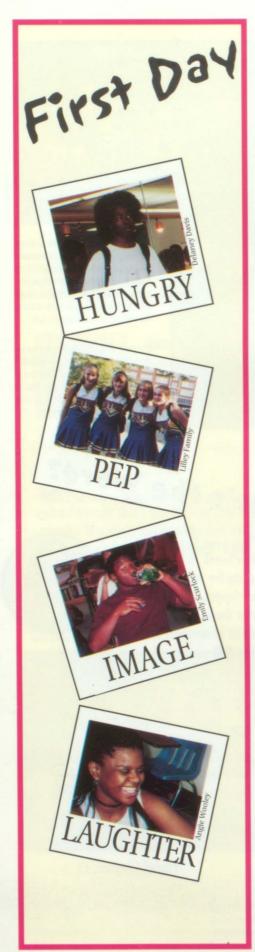

Laura Lilley

-Sophie Tharra, 11

This summer was tough. I played football a lot over the break to get ready for football season. We practiced at Byrd, threw the ball around, lifted weights, and played seven on seven games. It was HOT!

-Terrell Clayton, 11

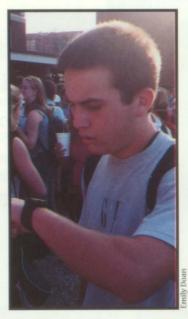

Putting their heads together. Seniors Amanda Shaver, Rachel Black, and Kristen Lowry begin the first day by receiving their locator cards. They compare with each other to see if they have any classes together. Twas really excited about the first day of school because I was a senior and I couldn't wait to see all my friends again, says Shaver.

Leaders of the Pack. Seniors Alison Todd and Shannon Shea take a break fromleading the new freshmen around on their first day. Being a Top Jacket on the first day was funbecausel got to be a leader and show the new freshmen around, 'says Todd.

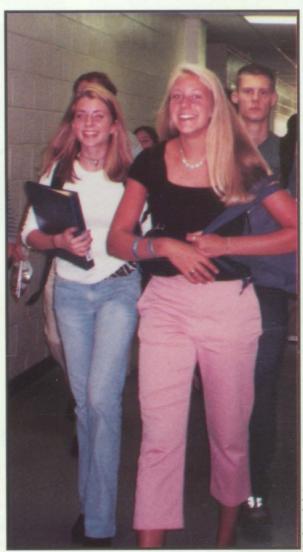

Is it time yet? On the first day, Junior Kyle Jagers anxiously awaits the beginning of school. He checks his watch to see how many minutes he has until he is finally an upperclassman. "All I was thinking was, only eight more hours until ScoobyDoo," says Jagers.

Pretty in Pink. Seniors Kristen Mason and Lynsie Fielder walk together to class trying to catch up on all of the summer's events. In between classes everybody can see who they will walk with for the rest of the year. I love walking to class and laughing with my friends' says Mason.

Go Jackets Go! The new Varsity Cheerleaders step onto the gym floor to cheerfor the newschool year. "Ilove to cheer on the first day because it gets everyone pumped up for all the games, says Senior Courtney Crain.

> Present for Jack Senior JenniferBoswellreceivesapresentonthefirst day of school which was a new gold Jack costume. She performs for the students in herdebutas. Jack Being, Jackisthebest! love to get the crowd excited, says Boswell.

Tired of School Already? Junior Bill Sanders sits in a daze while thinking of how quickly the summer flew by. Students couldn't seem to be fully awake for 830 A.M. on August 17. "Oh, I was wide awake and ready to learn," says Sanders.

Flashbacks

66 One of my best memories was back on the first day of school when Carter Hamm and I were running down the halls from all the ladies who wanted to tackle us and rip our shirts off. I mean, now that we are upperclassmen, who wouldn't want us?

-Anson Haynes, 9

"Unked the games, the scavenger hunt and all the history of Byrd. It was awesome!"

-Julia Glorioso, 9

Deep in thought. Freshmen Chris Chevalier and Meagan Cross concentrate on some logical answers for the scavenger hunt. Pride Rally was really fun, and my favorite part was the scavenger hunt even though I couldn't find who won the trophies, says Chevalier.

● Pizza, Pizza. Freshmen Laura Evans, Lindsey Stone, and Emery Camp enjoy Pride Rally, but what they were really excited about was the food. The games were fun and the food was great. I was happy just hanging with my friends, says Evans. ● Write Away. Freshmen Hope Cowgill, Laura Barkley, and their fellow teammates record as many answers as they can as fast as they can to win the big hunt. Tilked the Scavenger Hunt because we learned a lot about the school. It was really neat, says Cowgill. ● Gimme Food. Freshmen Ashley Hicks and Morgan Hill excitedly grab their pizzas to devour before Pep Squad has to leave for the first game of the season Tliked Pride Rally, and Iespecially enjoyed having my own Personal Pan Pizza, says Hicks.

#1Fan. StaceyHammond, senior, shows her support for the football team. Tm Byrds #1 fan, so 1 like to go all out and show my spirit," says Hammond.

Model Material. Sophomore Elaine Burgess poses for a picture. I really enjoyed homecoming this year," says Burgess. "My date was really sweet and I got to spend the whole night with my friends.

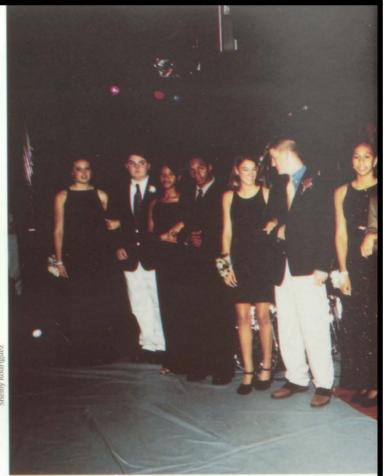

Flashbacks

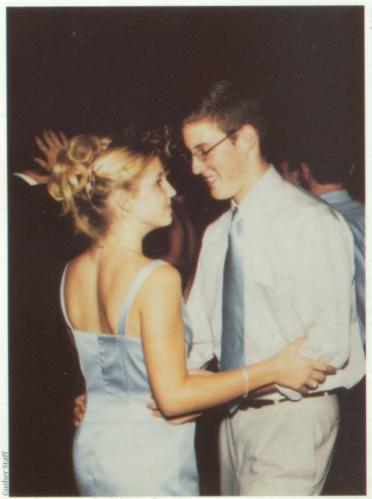

66 My freshman homecoming was so amazing. Everything was just perfect, except for one thing. I was wearing the most uncomfortable shoes ever! They gave me the worst blisters. But my date was the sweetest. He carried me out to his car because my feet hurt so badly.

It was really sweet.

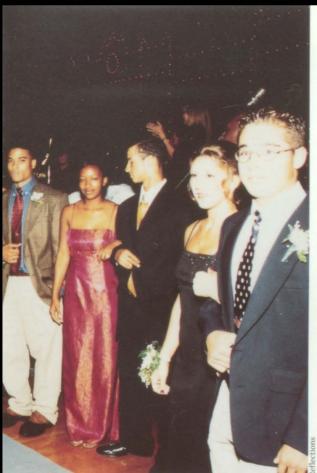

- Alexa Davis, 11

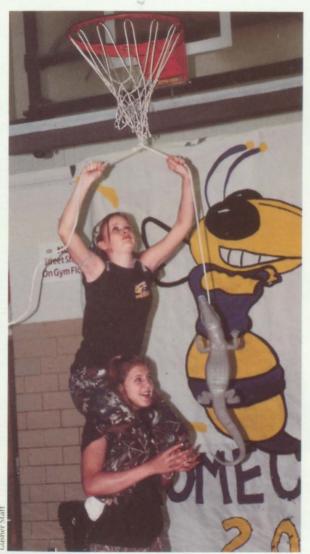

Dancing the Night Away. David Drummond, junior, and his date Jennifer Boswell, senior, had no problem shaking it at Homecoming this year. It was easy to dance to all the great songs that the band was playing says Drummond. We should have a live band every year!

Royalty for a Night. This year's homecoming court is presented to Byrd students at the dance. The 2000 Homecoming court consisted of Queen Shannon Taylor, Football Sweetheart Karla Sonnier, Princess Lauren Gordon, and Maids Danielle Durham, Kendera Monette, Raylette Pinkston, and Kayla Smith.

Live at Five. Dacia Boehmler. senior is interviewed by Tony Taglavore on October 6. Tony Live was great. Even though it was early, I was really excited," says Boehmler.

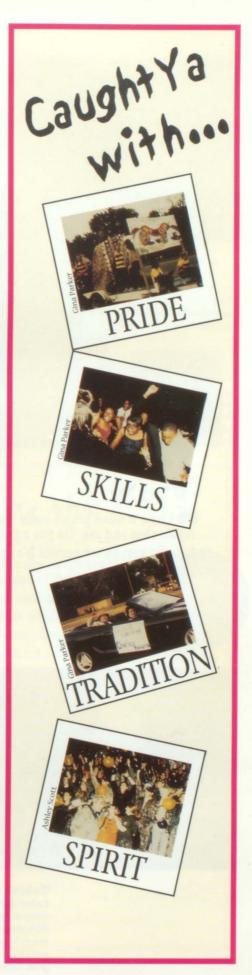

Wild and Crazy. Laura Gray Teekel, senior, makes the most of her lasthomecomingbydancingwildlyinfront of the band. Thad a great time being a rock star all by myself," says Teekel. "Thanks a lot Steve for leaving me all alone!"

Hung up on Gator Gumbo. Sophomores Jessica Harrison and Katrina Patrick show off their disgust for the Gators to all of Byrdand Shreveport during the Tony Live pepralley. Harrison carries Patrick while she ties the plastic gator to a basketball net. This was my first Gator Hunt, so I decided to do something that would stand out and prove that I support the Jackets, explains Patrick.

The best thing about my job this summer, which was lifeguarding, was the tons of half-naked people walking around.

-Robyn Patterson, 12

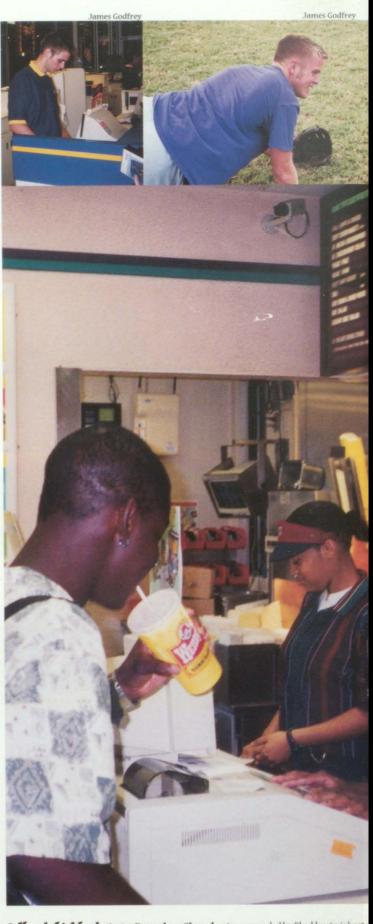

I hate it when people come into the tire repair shop and ask 'Do you repair tires?' It really gets on my nerves! It's so annoying.

-Rory Bell, 12

Taking Orders. Senior Jennifer Cater places an order at the computer screen at Applebee's. For an eighteen year old, waiting tables is the perfect job to make money in such a short amount of time. I really, enjoy working at Applebee's. It has a great atmopsphere, and I see a lot of my friends when I'm there," says Cater.

• Hard At Work. Senior Brendon Shrader is surrounded by Blockbuster's best movies six nights a week. 'My job is pretty easy. Scan the card, scan the movies, and tell the customer when to return the movie,' says Shrader. • Mad Dash. During practice after school, Junior Bobby Horne dives for a stray ball on the baseball field. Tm just looking for a better season than last season', says Horne. • Ring My Bell. Freshman Sami Turman loves being a part of Byrd's marching band because she enjoys playing the bells.' I have been playing the bells for about three years now. It is NOT a xylaphone,' says Turman.

We Love to See you Smile. Senior Brianna Smith takes orders from customers at her after school job at Wendy's. T just like to interact with the people, and I figure that this is a good job to do that in, you know, taking orders and stuff," says Smith.

"I have a hard time remembering to wash my hands after I touch the register. My boss gets on to my all the on me all the time about it." -Nick Smith, 12

"After school I usually work out on my bike for about thirty minutes a day and then I do a few crunches." -Miki Teer, 10

LOCAL EVENTS

News anchor Craig Day passes out candy to trick-or-treaters with his co-workers. The kids are very excited to be able to get candy from local celebrities.

The local coffeehouse, Crossroads on King's Highway, has a very active weekend schedule. Brother and sister musicians Myles and Callie Roberts shown are Louisiana residents. Their band, Jolly Napier, is known for its hip, self-composed praise music

Another band that graced Crossroads with their beautiful voices is Red Letter. They wow their audience with their last performance on Saturday, October 21.

This Halloween falls on a Tuesday and causes many trickor-treating festivities to be held earlier than usual. Local news Anchor Sherri Allen gives candy to eager kids.

See You at the Pole is held a short while after a large rally at Calvary Baptist Church. Many different youth groups from local churches get together to plan it. It's great for a community to unite for their beliefs.

Area malls give kids a safer place to trick-or treat. Claire's Boutique in Pierre Bossier Mall greets children with buckets of candy and elaborate costumes.

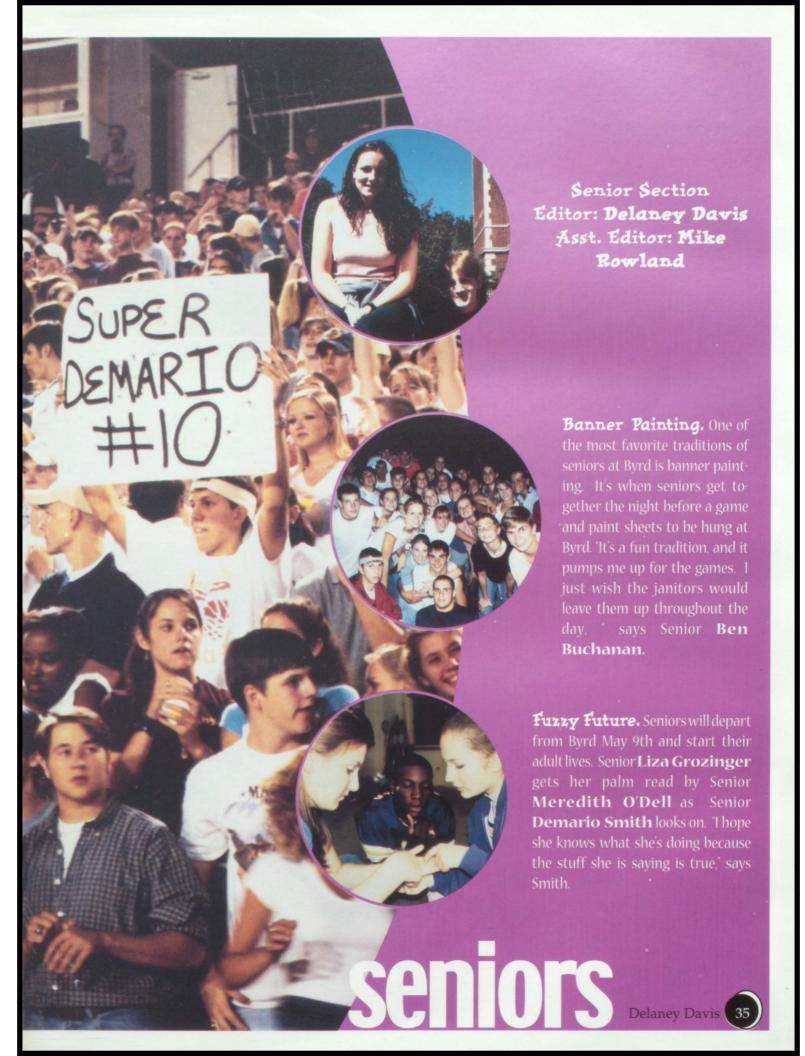

See You at the Pole is a large one-day celebration held not only locally, but also nationally. Students all around the nation meet before school at the flagpole to pray for leaders in the country and in their schools. Junior Jeff Chapman leads the crowd in praise songs to set the mood. With our own students as leaders, it's a big success!

In so many words...

Well this is it. Our time has finally arrived. We are SENIORS. From COLLEGE applications to fighting off SENIORITIS, our time has come, we are almost done. We will go through a series of "LASTS" this year. Last football game, last pep rally, last time to hug our FRIEND'S neck and sing the ALMA MATER. We will all go different ways next year. A new EXPERIENCE for us all. We are EDUCATED. We are the big men and women on campus. We are LIVING IT UP. We are ready to go. We are SENIORS!

In so many words...

We join the CROWDS at Byrd for another year of fun and FRIENDS. The juniors approach to see familiar faces, the sophomores are happy to be a year older, and the YOUNG freshmen come with excited and naive minds. The weekend PARTIES are eagerly awaited by the TIRED students as they study hard for TESTS. When Friday eventually rolls around, LOUD yells fill the gym as we sing the battle cry and cheer for the PURPLE and the GOLD!

Jackets &-life. Juniors wave a Byrd flag and cheer on the Mighty Jackets at the Byrd vs. Evangel football game Friday night at Caddo Stadium. The Jackets lost the game, but definitely claimed their territory and left a lasting impression on the Eagles! 'It was wild, no one ever sat down. I felt like Braveheart,' says Junior Ross Middleton.

Yunny. Junior Sammy Guy opens wide for a large bite of oyster on Puritan day for Mrs. O'neal and Ms. Patterson's American Studies class. The classes eat food and have dress up days for all the different eras throughout American History. "That was the most disgusting thing I have ever eaten, and I don't want to do it again!" says Guy.

Wrong Way. Because Byrd is so large there are staircases for going up and down to keep the area from being too crowded. But to Fresman Matt Vines, this fact can cause him to be late for class or just plain confused! "The hardest places to find at Byrd to me were the right staircases to use. I couldn't ever find the right ones!" says Vines.

Gounselors Spreading Wisdom to the World

In so many words...

The Byrd Yellow Jackets have kept their FANS fired up all year long. The football team did a great job of beating the odds, especially against The Times newspaper! Even though we began the season with a DEFEAT, with a lot of PRACTICE, we went on to receive many VICTORIES. The student body cannot help but place their PRIDE in their Yellow Jacket teams. They FIGHT for us, BLEED for us, and love to hear us CHEER. Their ENDURANCE gives us the motivation to yell, "Go JACKETS!"

A Season That Came So Close

Jackets Sting District Rivals

We Want Gator Gumbo Tonight! The Byrd vs. Captain Shreve game always brings extra excitement to The City." When asked by Tony Taglivore at an early morning pep rally if he planned to try extra hard playing Shreve, Senior Rodney Hill responded, 'We play our best every time we go out there.

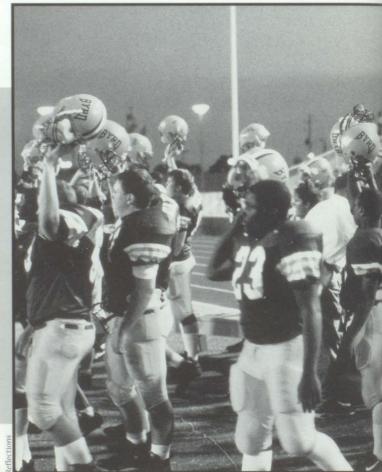

"Bus rides before the games can be stressful because the coaches really drill us about how we are going to play. But the bus rides back to Byrd are the best. The coaches tell us the scores of the other games, we talk about what good plays we had, and sometimes my friend Clayton (Chandler) and I sing songs together.

-Reginald Draper, 11

"I sit there and get focused for the game. On the way back, I talk with my teammates and bask in the glory." - Michael Gardner, 11

Worthy Opponent. Byrd sets up the next play against Evangel. The Jackets put up an incredible fight in this thrilling game. This was one of my toughest games ever, but over all, I think we did all right,' says Senior Jay Harper.

QUARTERBACK (`kwort-er-bak): The leader of the offense; receives the snap from the center and runs, passes, or hands the ball off to a running back. Junior Terrell Clayton says, "My job is to lead my team to victory and to take control of the game. I like the position because I like to be in a leadership role."

LINEBACKER ('lin-bak-er): A player who lines up right behind the defensive line to make tackles, cover recievers and occasionally rush the opponent's quarterback. "I like my position because I have complete and utter domination," says Senior Steve Lindenmayer.

FULLBACK (`ful-bak): An offensive back who can run the ball or receive a pass, but often blocks for the quarterback or running back. Senior Brandon Nightengale says, "For one, I set the tone of the game, and I have one of the best positions because every play is exciting and often victorious."

DEFENSIVE TACKLE (di- fen-siv tak- 'el): A lineman who holds ground and tackles the opposing player holding the ball. "Defensive linemen get to make the first hard hits and dominate our opponents," says Senior Andrew Thompson.

Huddle Up! Senior Jonathan Lowe huddles with his teammates to discuss a next play. Lowe says, Before the games, nervousness is all wadded up inside, but once I step out on the field, all nervousness is gone, and it's all inten-

Break Away. The referee watches as Junior Josh Porter catches the ball and shoots down the court towards the basket. The really happy with my performance this year on the team. I think that I've grown a lot as a player and as a member of the Byrd team, this is a great group of guys, and it's an honor to be playing with them," says Porter.

SO WHAT?

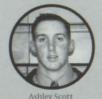

WHY DO YOU ENJOY PLAYING ON BYRD'S BASKETBALL TEAM?

"I enjoy playing forward for Byrd because I like to 'bang with the big boys.' Me, Matt, and Cameron do the dirty work that opens up fast breaks and three pointers."

-Anthony Wagner, 12

James Godfre

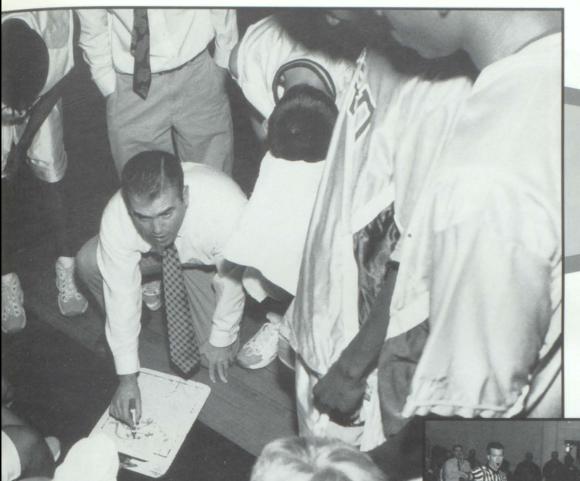

"My favortie part of being on Byrd's team is playing with a bunch of guys that know how to be serious and game on the court but can separate is from reality off court."

-Zach Raley, 11

Reaching Out. Senior Matthew Mitchell reaches up for a rebound on the opposite team with a little help from his teammate, Junior Cameron Waugh. Tlike to shoot more than I like to rebound, but every little bit I do is for the team. If it helps everbody out, then I'm doing it,' says Mitchell.

Go Get 'em Boys! During a time-out, Coach McDowell gives the guys the scoop on the next play. He sends them back on the court with a word of advice and encouragement. 'I like to give a little pep talk to the guys whenever I have the chance. I think it gives them more energy," says McDowell.

IN A MOMENT

"Treally like playing for Byrd's team. It's a big rush when you step on the court and do things right, it really makes me feel good when coach compliments me on one of the moves I've done. But in all, it's just a honor to be on the team."

"Being with the team at every game and playing in front of the fans are two of the best things about being on Byrd's basketball team. I'm very glad that I made the team, these two years wouldn't have been the same without it."

- Nate Newell, 10

On Top Of His Game. Senior Kyle Blankenship readies himself and awaits an opportunity to steal the ball from the opposing team member. I love shooting the basketball. I try to work everyday on improving my shot, but this time I wasn't really shooting,' says Blankenship.

CENTER (sen 'ter): The player's goal is to tip-off the ball and get the ball back down the court. "I like my position because I like playing down low and taking charges. I love basketball and I'll miss my team after the year's over," says Senior Dacia Boehmler.

GUARD (gard): The player's goal is to try to find an open and shoot the ball. "I love my position! I think we have a great team this year and I look forward to playing as a senior," says Junior Crystal Hughes.

FORWARD (for 'werd): On the offense the player posts up and screens away from the ball. On the defense the player blocks shots and rebounds whenever a shot goes up. "I really enjoy my position. Our team works well together to make everything goes smoothly," says Sophomore Simone Craig.

Point Gaurd (point 'gard): The player's goal is to get the ball up and down the court. The player also looks for openings for the ball. "I enjoy the game and I look forward to winning more next year," says Freshman Teoka Wilkerson.

Court Control. Senior Ashley Abercrombie certainly isn't afraid to make her presence known on the court. In the Byrd vs. Southwood game, she eludes her opponents through keen strategy and teamwork. Abercrombie says, 'It's been a great four years and I'll miss it.

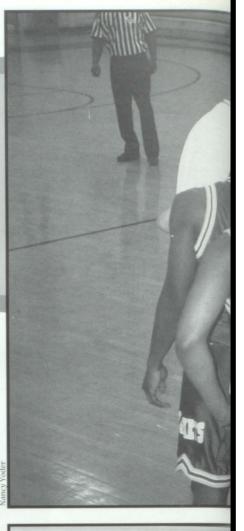

In Your Face. Who cares about comfort zones? Junior Nancy Hedgemon is never scared to get up close and personal in the name of the game. Hedgemon exclaims, I love the game! I love playing defense because defense wins the game."

Guardin' Girl. It's not an easy job guarding girls on teams as intimidating as the Evangel Eagles. Just ask Fresh man Julia Glorioso about how difficult it can be to make sure no one gets a chance to score. 'You have to constantly pay attention, you can't let anyone get out of your sight," says Glorioso.

WHAT IS THE TOUGHEST CONCEPT OF BASKETBALL?

"Basketball itself is really tough. You have to have endurance and stamina, especially when everybody's eyes are on you."

-Blake Evans, 9

"The constant practice is tough, but I get to play with my two best buds, Bonnie Hicks and Jennifer Trippe. Without them, it would be awful." -Hilary Duncan, 11

Jumpin' JV. Practice, practice, practice. Sophomore Sharina Williams practices her jump shot for the upcoming game. 'I am constantly practicing and improving my shot. I'm not great at it ye but I'm getting a lot better," says Williams.

What's The Plan? The freshmen boy's basketball team discusses their plan with their coach during a time out. Freshman Adam Lillick stands among his teammates during the huddle. 'During time outs, we usually just plan out what we're going to do to defeat the other team. It's pretty tense during this time. We all really want to win," says Lillick.

Passing Perfection. Junior Dock Voorhies tries to catch the basketball that has been passed to him. It isn't as easy as the junior stars make it look, however. 'It takes a lot of practice to be able to run, catch the ball, plan your next move, and make sure no one tries to steal the ball away from you," says Voorhies.

COvering the Playing Field

1 Determination Leads to Domination. Senior Lindsay Johnson stretches long and hard before having to get out there and win a victory for the Lady Jackets soccer team. She has to be in concentration so she can play her hardest on the field. Tlove to stretch, it gets me ready to beat the other team and take some names! says Johnson. 2 Batter Up. Senior Justin Creamer practices hard for the Jackets baseball team. He is a star hitter and he practices to make himself even better. "The practices are long and hard, but when we win during the season, it makes it all worth while, says Creamer. 3 Go Jackets Go. Being head cheerleader, Senior Shannon Shea leads the girls in many cheers for the Jackets football team. During this game, the cheerleaders added a touch of country for the occasion of the Cowboys visiting the field. "I love to cheer on the guys on the field; they-work so hard and they need some extra cheering," says Shea. 4 Practice Makes Perfect. Junior Marissa Guy works on her swing during the long softball practice. She tries to perfect her swing so during the season she will be able to score points for the Lady Jackets softball team. 'Being a good hitter is a priority. I try to practice hard everyday to make it better," says Guy. 5 Rock the Casbah. Senior Allison Todd dances for the Freshman Open House. She and the other Highsteppers try to show the incoming Freshman how fun and spirited the students are at C.E. Byrd. The best part about Danceline is the feeling you get when you hear the reaction of the crowd, it makes all the practice worth it," says Todd. 6 Taking a Break. Senior Jonathan Lowe takes a break from a very intense football game. He sits back and reflects on what he plans to do when the defense goes back onto the field. 'Sometimes during tough games, I just have to sit back and gather my thoughts and concentrate before going back onto the field," says 1...2...3...Down! Sophomore William Walker takes his opponent down to the mat. During the wrestling match, he exerts all of his energy to beat his challenger in the competition. 'It's tough, but the feeling I get when I'm holding the guy down on the mat makes all the hard work worth it," says Walker. 8 We Want Two! Senior Josh Porter goes for a shot against the Jackets' rival Evangel. Evangel was tough competition, but Porter helped add some points to the scoreboard. 'Playing against the Eagles was hard, but finally beating them was a great feeling says Porter. 9 Muscle Mania. Senior Robyn Patterson and Sophomore Brenner Bonnet show off their muscles for the camera during practice. They both represent Byrd around the city in their various swim meets. Brenner and I were showing off our gigantic muscles, since we had just come from the weight room! says Patterson. 10 Shoot for 3. Sophomore Jennifer Dollar goes to the outer portion of the court to shoot for a three-pointer. She takes the shot with nobody guarding her, and her teammates looking on. "Going for three and making it is a great feeling anytime, but it's really nice when it happens in a game!" says

Jacket fans. The fans demand a good game, and they are almost never dissapointed. Senior Anthony Wagner has played basketball all of his four years at Byrd. He is a significant part of the boys varsity team. 'It's all about the love for the game and dedication to the game. This year's team was awesome and we had a great season,' says Wagner, after he slamdunks the ball into the hoop.

...5...6...7...8 sophomores of Highsteppers took over the dance at this pep ralley. It was an under classmen led pep rally, s no seniors danced in this dance. Sophomores Kali Kimmel, Jaqueline Adams, and Ashley Finney strutted their stuff and showed us their flexibility during that performance. 'That dance was so much fun! We had a great time learning it and performing it. It was definitely my favorite dance!" says Adams.

The C. E. Byrd Alumni Association celebrated Byrd's 75th Anniversary during homecoming this year with a luncheon and open house at the school and joined with the PTSA for a tailgate party before the game. Over the years, the Alumni Association has given generously to the school. The computers and research towers in the library, the equipment to start KBYRD, landscaping, sprinkler system, French doors in the foyer and southwest entrance, the corner monument sign, the redecoration of the foyer, matching grants to teachers, and scholarships to outstanding students are but a few of the projects. This year, as the 75th Anniversary gift from Alumni, over $100,000 was raised for needed improvements to the auditorium. New sound and light systems have been installed. New drapes for windows and stage curtains are on order and chairs have been repaired. Other improvements are still to be made.

Hall of Fame. On October 6, six new Alumni were inducted into the Byrd Hall of Fame during the Homecoming assembly. The honorees were Lucile (Hendrick) Mertz, Tilliman Franks, Wess Wise, Donald E. Hathaway, Curtis W. Mewbourne, and B. L. Buddy Shaw. Byrd has a large alumni association that is known for its active participation in Byrd. Every year Byrd honors more members of their Alumni. Tis a huge honor, says inductee Buddy Shaw, Ineverimagined that I would be inducted into the Hall of Fame. I still can't believe it."

We're in the money! Principal Lynne Fitzgerald triumphantly holds up the most recent donation from the Byrd Alumni Association for all to see during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony that was held on October 6. Ms. Fitzgerald is struck speechless by the generous donation. 'Wow! $100,000! Our Alumni Association is so good to us. It's up to us to make sure that we take as good of care of Byrd as they do,' says Fitzgerald.

et's go Jackets! The Byrd cheerleaders entertain the Alumni at the annual Alumni Luncheon. We really had a great time meeting the former cheerleaders.' says Senior Shannon Taylor, 'It felt great to bring back their memories from their years at Byrd.

The Tradition Continues. Student Council President, Robert Lay, addresses the Alumni at the annual AlumniLuncheon. Ttwasquite anhonor to give the introduction at the Alumni Luncheon. The alumni are so involved and it shows the great pride and traditional values of Byrd, says Lay.

Honor the Alumni. Manypeople attend the annual Alumni Luncheon. Vice President Barbara Hodges thor oughly enjoys the luncheon held every year. The luncheon allows all of the Alumni to join together and remember past times and make new friendships 8th Grade Day. During the year, Byrd held a quiz bowl tournament for the 8th grade quiz bowl teams from various middle schools. The Byrd Quiz Bowlers host the tournament and allow the students to compete against each other. The Caddo Middle Magnet Team participated and it allowed them to see what Byrd's team is like.

Keeping Score. Freshman Michelle McCowen is practicing how to keep score for the future tournaments. They each have to learn how to use the timer and the score card so they will know how to keep score when they go to competitions. The most fun part about Freshman Quiz Bowl is that you learn a lot of information and you work together as a team with people you don't even know," says McCowen

What challenges you most about your club?

"The competition between the other students and I in Mu Alpha Theta is what challenges me to do well on thetests." - Kevin Gallagher, Senior, Mu Alpha Theta

"The tests are impossible in Mu Alpha Theta." -Cassie Gaston, Senior, Mu Alpha Theta

"The biggest challenge in Freshman Quiz Bowl so far has been hosting the 8th grade Quiz Bowl members and having to read the questions to them." Michael Farrar, Freshman Runner-up. Senior Hannah Peterson, Junior James Goeders, Sophomores Crystal Lites, Meg Lynch, and Miles Sugar are proudly showing off their trophy. The team attended the Esa tournament in Acadiana. We were an inexperienced team, but we were still able to win 4th place, says Goeders.

Studying and More Studying. Freshman Sara Powell crams as much information as she can to prepare herself for the challenging questions. Freshman Quiz Bowl tests the students' information on various subjects. 'I do study a little for Quiz Bowl, but a lot of it is stuff I know,' says Powell.

Leader of the Pack. Senior Hannah Peterson conducts the Quiz Bowl meeting before school. She tells the rest of the team about upcoming meetings and tournaments they will be attending. The best part about quiz bowl is the great road trips and James Goeders is the funniest guy! know, "says Peterson.

Preparation Is the Key To Success. Freshman Wendy Weaver is taking the quiz bowl equipment out of the box. She is preparing for a trial in which they will use the buzzers and answer the practice questions. 'Quiz Bowl is a great club to really make me think and to make great friends,' says Weaver.

Power of Prayer. All ages, grades, races, shapes, and sizes find they have at least one thing in common and that's their faith. These students gather early one morning to unite and pray about many things concerning teens our age. This isn't just one morning a year, but two mornings a week. That is Monday mornings before school for Refuge, and Friday mornings before school for FCA.

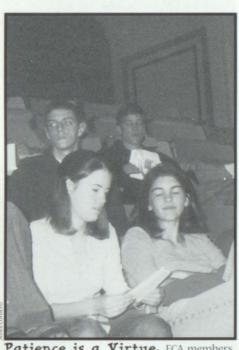

Leader of the Pack. FCA President, Senior Austin Lash, provides a wonderful role model for not only the FCA members, but also for the whole school. As a true example of a Christian Athelete, FCA is proud to call him their leader. FCA memberandofficer, Senior Lauren Gordon says,"Austin is able to make a big impact on our school with his personality. He's the perfect leader for our club."

Flyin' High. Refuge gets very involved in our Homecoming Parade. This is the first year we have been able to be involved in the parade and we wanted everyone to know about our club. We thought that a live helicopter would be pretty noticeable to the whole school," says Senior Jennifer Russell

Walkin the Walk. These clubs are full of fun and games, but the members are also very serious about their faith. Junior Lauren Daniels explains, "It's not just about getting into school early and socializing with your friends. It really is about expressing your faith and doing it with those who agree with you and are like vou."

Patience is a Virtue. FCA members anxiously wait on Friday mornings to find out what exactly they will be doing that morning. Junior Brian Williams says, I like that about FCA. They do a lot of different things. One week you have an awesome speaker, and the next week we're praying in different huddles."

Enough is Enough. In all the excitement of Community Christmas, Senior Jay Harper gets a little excited and anxiously picks up his child to move on to then extactivity table. "It was not made a continuation of the little and excitement, the kidwas just too tired to walk," says Harper.

Loopty Loo. Seniors Sarah Laughlinand Kristin Lowery cheer for their freshmen team playing the Houla Hoop Game at Pride Rally. Pride Rally gave meachance to talk to and get to know some freshmen. It was really rewarding to see them having fun, says Lowery.

Teacher's Pet. Junior Hannah Harrisonhelpsgradepapersforherassigned teacher for Z-Club. Z-Club is a service organization, so each member must have a certain number of service hours per semester. I like Z-Club because of the opportunity to help at the school and those less fortunate than I, says Harrison.

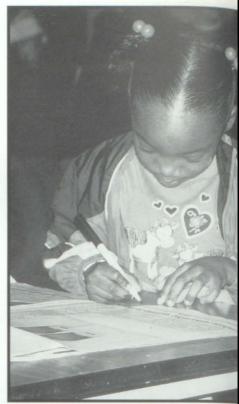

Gimmie a Break. With all the different activities to do at Community Christmas, it is extremely easy to get tired and hungry really fast. Senior Chris Clanton takes a snack break with his young escortee. 'We had a lot of fun at Community Christmas. I really enjoyed hanging out with Shakira. We ate good cookies,' says Clanton.

Too Much To Be Touched. Seniors Dacia Boemhler, Angela Gates, and Shannon Shea show new freshmen a warm wel-come through drama in the play Grease. Boemhler played the role of the cool Marty, Shea played the role of the new freshman Sandy, and Gates played the role of the annoying Patty. Inever knew the play could be so much fun. I don't even think the freshman enjoyed it as much as we did, says Boemhler.

Through a Child's Eyes. Senior z-Club m e m b e r T e s s Bradford assists her adopted child for the evening at one of the many activity tables at Community Christmas. The different activity tables and games are set up by various c lubs. 'Community Christmas was so fun and Ireally enjoyed the company of my little girl Porsha. She was so sweet and it made me feel really happy to be escorting her, says Bradford.

Greased Lightin'. Senior Ashley Abercrombie acts the part of Jan in the play. Grease, put on by the Top Jackets for the incoming freshmen of the 2000-2001 year. Party Time. Winding down, Junior Shelby Rodriguez, Senior Ashley Scott, and Junior Tiffany Garcia sit in the halls and snack away. We had so much fun that night," says Scott, "this was definitely the best camp that Ive ever been to!

Mouse Trap.Junior Tiffany Trujillo clicks on one of the more defunct mouse at the computers. This mouse NEVER works, I mean NEVER I always have the hardest time using this mouse" says Truiillo.

Playing Dress Up. Seniors Kara Burt and James Godfrey give Mrs. Parker's godchild, Bailey Williams the time of her life at this year's homecoming parade. Tlove dressing up as the Shreve Gator, I was THE MOST originally dressed person there, says Godfrey Dancing Monkeys. Seniors Delaney Davis and Ashley Enderspracticethedance for the lip sync contest at yearbook camp. 'Camp was a blast, but I had the most fun doing the lip sync contest. Because hey, 'Don't you want somebody to love? I know I do," says Davis.

Sports May hem. Senior Lauren Wilkersonsits and attempts to design the Sports spreads. 'It had to have been the hardest thing I've ever had to do while being an editor on staff. There's so much new fangled technology out today, it all just baffles me, says Wilkerson as she goes back to clicking away at the computer.

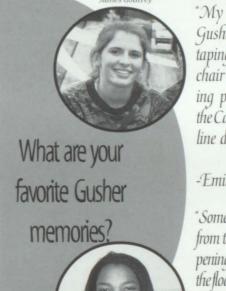

"Pica People". Senior Mike Rowland rehearses the ever popular Gusher story of King and Queen Pica infamous pical and, while Senior, Lindsay Cardwell looks on lost and confused. Thad NO idea what Mike was talking about until the very end when he gave the punch line, it was still a pretty stupid story to begin with, savs Cardwell Tons of Helping Hands. Seniors Ashley Enders, Lindsay Cardwell, and Junior Lacy Johnston rush to help Senior Donna Burnett. 'Goodness! They all were so helpful, but neither gave me the answer I wanted. All I wanted to know was which person should I give these pictures to. Eventually I found out, but it took a while," says Burnett.

James Godfrey

"My best memories for Gusher this year are taping Laura Lilley to a chair while we were working picture day, going to the Catacombs and to deadline dinners."

-Emily Doan, Junior

"Some of my best memories from this year were the happenings at camp, making the float for homecoming and chasing James Godfrey around the Gusher room.'

You Better Watch Out. Junior Ryan Nealy looks out over his troop in watch for flaws. I was just doing my job! I have to do my job and then see if everyone under me is doing theirs, 'says Nealy. Other students watch out for their peers to make sure they are not acting up. They are just helping out their teachers.

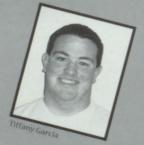

What is the best part of your organization?

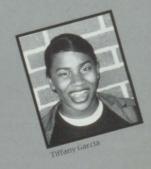

"I enjoy Physical Fitness because I like keeping in shape!" says Ryan Nealy, Junior

"I'm in the ROTC because it's fun and it will help me in the future! The Drill Team is the best!" says LaToya Addison, Junior

"I'm in Physical Fitness because it teaches me how to be a better leader to others and it also requires self-control and discipline," says Russell Stuart,

"I like being in the unarmed drill team! I like to dance and clap around with the girls!" says Rachel Stevens.

Pride and Joy. Senior Lt. Terry Gatson looks back on memories and trophies that he has helped win in ROTC. "It's my senior year and I was thinking about back when I first joined ROTC, 'says Gatson. It is amazing how fast the years go by. But there are always wonderful memories at the City of Byrd.

On Guard. Freshman Rachel Stevens practices her part in ROTC before her uniform is inspected. 'I was just making sure I had everything that I was supposed to be wearing that day. I don't want to get into trouble," says Stevens.

Down. Senior, Colonel, Michael Edwards does pushups while waiting for the buses to arrive. "We were waiting to go to Broadmoor so, I decided to exercise. It's all a part of being in fitness team," says Edwards.

Exhausted. Senior Russell Stuart balances his time between being a cheerleader and a full time member of the fitness team. "I try to be a big part of both, but sometimes I get so tired," says Stuart.

Salute. Sophomore Michael Pitts stands at guard on inspection day. "Sometimes it gets old and boring just standing there, but its all good in the end, "says Pitts.

Skills. Freshman Tenesha Williams practices twirling her gun before the Veterans' Day assembly. 'I get nervous that I'm going to drop it, I do sometimes, but its okay, ' says Williams.

Study Hard. As a new member of ROTC, Sophomore Tiffany Carr had many things to learn about what it takes to be in ROTC. Tve learned great leadership and discipline qualities which will help me later in life," said Carr.

Leadership. Not only do the people in ROTC learn military strategies, but they also have to learn discipline and leadership, Being in ROTChas helped me to become a better person," said Carlena Colstan, senior.

Attention. Back straight, head held high, shoulders back. This is the typical format for ROTC inspection. Can you believe that part of their grade came from how they looked on inspection days. "The best part about ROTC is the one-on-one contact." says Colt Friday, junior. Stand straight, walk proud, and no smiling for these ROTC members

Ashley Sholar

Up High. Flagline students were not the only ones who knew how to twirl. ROTC members who are on drill team had to perform a numerous amount of tricks. "We are like one big family here on drill team. I love winning 1st place," said Junior Belinda Armstrong. Rotation and height are the two most important factors for these people.

The Green Mile. Time to put on those running shoes and smoke the competition! Junior Adrianna Layne hustles toward the finish line during an Orienteering meet. I think that competing helps build physical strength as well as character, says Layne.

Bright-eyedandBushy-tailed. An old cliches says, 'Early to bed, Early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.' For the freshmen in Sgt. Mosely's first period class the extra sleep can go a long way. Freshman Samantha Caldwellsays, 'Ilike ROTC because the classes are real relaxed.' True, the classroom setting may be relaxed, but regardless, students are kept on their toes.

Orienteering team never forgets to hold their heads high. Participants train throughout the year in order to give their competition a run for their money. Commander Senior Michael Edwards says, "We have a wonderful team this year. They are constantly putting in 100%."

At Ease. Seniors Matt Mitchell and Jonee Scott respectfully stand at attention at the annual Veteran's Day ceremony. "I've worked hard to gain the position that I have, but I've learned a lot along the way," says Mitchell. Of all the traits gained in the ROTC program, it is certain that participants earn an undeniable respect for the men and women that defend our country.

Outdoor Antics. Sgt. Doyle and the Orienteering Team created plenty of memorable scenes. Throughout their training and hard work, team members form long-lasting bonds. Junior Tremelle Crockett says, Tve made a lot of good friends this year and I look forward to being a senior next year. It is not only the endless work that makes this team victorious, but a strong bond of friendship.

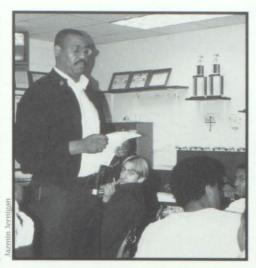

Tough Stuff. Surely the members of the Orienteering team can go the distance. Students who compete are presented with different obstacles such as navigating through the woods with only a compass and participating in other physical challenges. Senior Amanda Robinson says, 'lenjoy competing because I have a chance to push myself to do my absolute best.'

Teachers Pet. Sophomore Kim Brasfield helps her World history teacher, Ms. McQuaig, pass out scan trans from a recent test they had taken. Some students have a few classes that they really do not like that much. Brasfeild's class she does not like is World History. 'I really do not like History because it is hard for me to pay attention for a long time," says Brasfield. Maybe it is not the homework but the class work that is putting students to sleep.

Preparation For Class. In Mr. Meekins Chemistry I class. Mr. Meekins has the student come in and read in their books for the first 10 minutes of class. This is to get their brains into the Chemistry mood. Sometimes you will find some interesting experiments in Mr. Meekins class. "We made a bomb in Mr. Meekins class when we mixed Hydrogen and Oxygen," says Junior L.B. Jeter. "Kids don't try this at home," says Meekins.

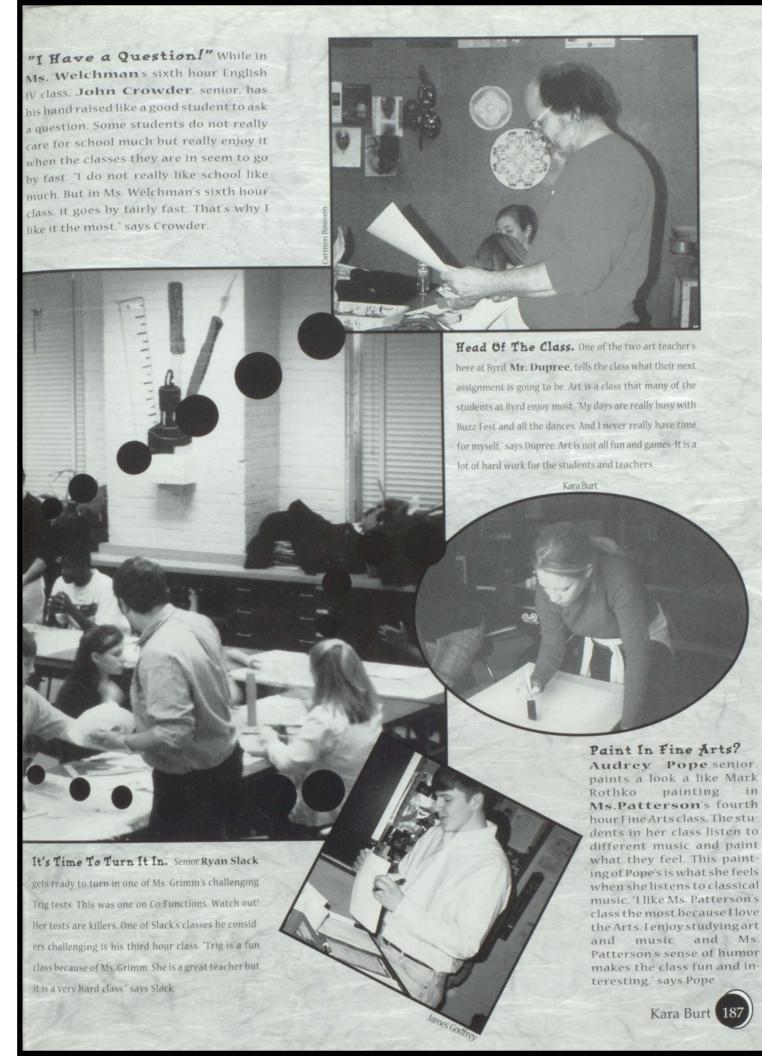

Throughout The Day

The hard work does not end until the 3:30 bell rings

Mr. Dupree's first hour Art class works hard on their clay projects for that day. The Art class does many things around Byrd. For instance, they paint the backgrounds for all the school dance pictures and help out with Buzz Fest. But, do these artists put as much time and effort in their other classes? Let's find out....

Get Ready For Your Next Class. Freshman Jodi Ingram gets ready for her next class, Gym with Ms. Leverman, while in Mr. Harris' Physical Science class. For freshmen, their classes can be hard but for Ingram it is not. 'All my classes are easy,' says Ingram. But at the years go on at Byrd, your classes will become more challenging.

Darla,

You are a very special young lady. We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. We know God has a great future planned for you. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Uncle Paul, NaNa, Melissa, and Family

To the Dad that can do anything: Where would I be without you? You gave me the strength to look past my trials and to move on from things I cannot change. Lord knows I have driven you up the wall with "staying out late." You will always be my Dad, you will always be in my heart, and I will always love you.

To the brother that no one else could possibly have: From teaching me how to ride my bike to trying to teach me how to drive a standard. You have brought new light into my eyes and taught me things that no one else could. We have been through so much together and I would like you to know that I love you. No matter what, you will always be my big brother.

To my "guardian angel," my mother: I want to thank you for all of your support you have given me throughout our years together. You have been with me through it all, and I know in my heart when I step into college, when I walk down the aisle at my wedding, and when I have my first child you will be there in my heart and soul guiding me through it. Although you are not here, I love you, and I know that you love me too.

It's all about what you take away. "There are places I'll remember all my life." Thanks, Byrd, for giving me so much.

With all my heart, Claire T.

Dear God,

Thank you for helping me make it to this day, and keep the souls of those who didn't make it along the way. Thank you for the loving memories that I have gained at C. E. Byrd. Thank you for the football player in my life who is always there for me. Thank you for that special love in my life. Thanks for my loving mother. May you bless her and keep her strong. Thank you for your support and loving me. Thank you for being my guiding light through darkness.

Love, Brianna Luvisha Smith Class of 2001 Bree.

Well this is your final year at Byrd and you've come a long way. I still think about all the Broadmoor days we had together. You have been my best friend for the past 5 years and I thank you so much for that. We have been through so much together and through it all we've kept each other's back. I will never ever forget the laughs we had and the embarassment at B. T. W. You know what I mean. We are finally out of here! Class of 2001!

-Proverbs 31:26

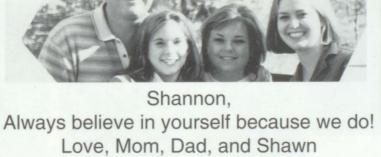

N

These four years that we've been through So much has happened, we're long overdue To go back and take a very good look And flip through the pages of our old yearbooks

On that first big day: Freshmen Registration WE found our books, moving station to station Feeling nervous, apprehensive, and so out of place We met our new classmates, at last face to face

As underclassmen we were restricted as to The places we went and the things we could do But as we got older we found something new We discovered ourselves and adopted fresh views

As upperclassmen we began driving to school We received more privileges: we bent the rules We did homework in groups and studied together And slept through classes that dragged on forever

Our senior year began with college applications Our favorite days in gym were bus evacuations As a class we developed a unique Senior Style Playing sports, joining clubs, and studying all the while

As mentors we helped the freshmen adjust To a new lifestyle and gave them someone to trust Now leaving everything behind, we hope to stay in touch Throughout a lifetime that will change so much

The time has come to go our separate ways
As life stretches out before us like a maze
The future is out there, beyond our small scope
While the years to come shine brightly with hope

Well, finally the time has come, we will all be moving on and going our own separate ways. So as you go on your journey I wish happiness, success, and a long, full life.

Much Love, Ambrielle Dawn Rison Class of 2001

Memories can take our friendships a mighty long way

As long as the memories are within our hearts each and everyday

Although throughout college we all may shift and depart

Just remember that our love will last always even if we're apart Keep this message with you for as long as you live

Because unconditional love is the best a friend could give

Keep your heads up and strive for the highest

C.E. Byrd High School Class of 2001

We are Jackets! We are Jackets! Always we fight for our victory, With spirits high and hopes undaunted. For we are the Jackets, Byrd High Yellow Jackets; We are the Jackets, best of all! We will never lose our spirit; That is plain to see. Until the final whistle blows, we will fight for victory. Fight! Fight! This victory will be ours so hold your head up high. For we are the Jackets, Byrd High Yellow Jackets. We are the Jackets, best of all!

Aran Johnson knows that without science classes he would be lost for life.

Greative

Although it is hard working by yourself Derrick Franklin shows that in some cases it's better being solo.

Junior Joe Paikowski has one big apetite when it comes to a chicken meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gusher 2001

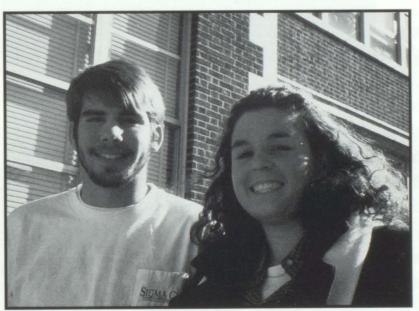

Ashley Coleman has been selected Mrs. Gusher for her wonderful contributions to Byrd over the past 4 years. Coleman has been in such Clubs as Cultural Arts, Red Cross, Leo, Physics, FBLA, Art and Refuge. She was named Who's Who Among High School Students her junior year. Also she has received Renaissance all 4 years in school. She is the President of the Spanish Club and also went to Literary Rally her sophomore year in Spanish. Her freshman and sophomore year she was a member of Byrd's ROTC.

David Reiland has been selected for Mr. Gusher because of his hard work and dedication to Byrd over the years. Reiland has been in such clubs as Drama, French, National Honor Society, Physics, and Mu Alpha Theta. He is also a Top Jacket and was honored as Who's Who Amona High School Students. Reiland is Senior Captain of the Soccer Team and a member of the Jazz Band and K-Byrd. staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Mistletoe 2001

Steve Lindenmayer has been awarded Mr. Mistletoe for his outstanding participation at Byrd. His clubs include: Key Club, FCA, Youth and Government, and Physics. Lindenmayer has been active in many sports such as Football, Lacrosse, Basketball and Wrestling.

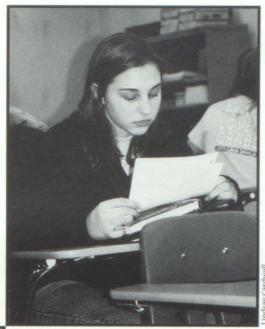

Rebecca Sayres has been given the title of Mrs. Mistletoe for her wonderful job of attendance in clubs and her various help around Byrd over the years. Her clubs include: Pep Squad, Cultural Arts, Spanish, and FCA. Sayres has been awarded with Who's Who Among High School Students. She also is the President of Top Jackets and plays soccer for CABOSA. Her junior year she was a member of the Highlife staff. Sayres was appointed an award for Our Youth, Our Future in the Times Newspaper.

As the year comes to a close, we reflect upon the things that have changed and the new additions we have grown accustomed to. In the mornings, we no longer stood under the breezeway in front of the main building. Instead, we were moved to the courtyard between the learning center and the science building. The football team made it to the playoffs placing 2nd in district right behind Evangel. Byrd's legacy of not winning a playoff game depended on the last minute of the game where a field goal would have tied the game. Although we didn't make it, Byrd proved to everyone that we were strong and powerful. As December came, so did the sleet and ice, causing us to miss school three days before the week of midterms. Ah. midterms -- the school board moved midterms so that they would fall before Christmas break. Shockingly, on New Year's Eve we got a big surprise--three inches of snow. The boys' basketball team was named second in district and for the first time, a wrestling sweetheart was named. At the close of the year, seniors eagerly awaited becoming the 1st graduating class of the millennium. When we look back and think about the year 2000-2001, we know it can be described... In SO Many W Ords.

Endurance

- Straight A's. Sophomore Tessa Romero studies her world history notes for the upcoming test. She is in Mrs. McQuaig's 4th hour history class on the 3rd floor of the science building. "Having a third floor class has shown me how valuable five minutes are, especially when you're coming from a main building class to a third floor class," says Romero.
- Sweet Music. Junior James Stewart practices his cello outside of the orchestra room. Stewart says, "I play the cello because I like making music. My parents made me start playing when I was younger and now I've come to enjoy it."
- Coming Back! Senior
 Megan Waller kicks the ball at the Byrd vs. Airline scccer game.
 Byrd was down 1-0 when Waller and her teammates came back for a victory. The goal got them to the the finals in the Airline tournament. Waller says, "It was an awesome, exciting game, but the only bad thing was it was so muddy."
- Chicks With Stix.
 Caddo Magnet scrimage game.
 The Girls' Lacrosse team started last year, and ended the season 2nd in state. Hwang says, "I've been playing Lacrosse since it's been at Byrd and it has helped me to work well with others and get along with my peers."

Colophon

All 1,060 copies of the 87th edition of the Gusher were printed by Josten's Publishing Company in Topeka, Kansas. The cover is a process color metallic silver background with gloss lamination, drawn by Doug Thrasher at the Jostens' camp in Denton, Texas. The theme was developed at David Baker's Camp at the Bossier Civic Center. The theme is spelled out in Avant Garde and the words describing Byrd are in various fonts and sizes. Our front endsheet is a metallic silver with a die cut to match up against the photo montage on the title page. Nueva Roman is the basic font used throughout the book and the paper on pages 1-33 are 90 pound Reflection II Gloss and the rest of the book is in 80 pound matte. The endsheets, title page, division pages, opening, closing and colophon were designed by Editor Lindsay Cardwell. The opening is a tip-in that includes the table of contents of the book. The Student Life section was designed by Emily Doan and Jazmin Jernigan. The Senior section was designed by Delaney Davis. The People section was designed by Jill Scurlock. The Sports section was designed by Lauren Wilkerson. The Academics section was designed by Kara Burt, who also served as assistant editor of the 2001 Gusher. The Ads section was designed by Editors Lacy Johnston and Jenni Cordero. The Index Section was designed by Ashley Enders. The Student Life and Senior sections used various process colors. The following metallic colors were used for the division pages: Student Life-Pantone 8483 CVC, Seniors-Pantone 8103 CVC, People-Pantone 8923 CVC, Sports-Pantone 8303 CVC, Academics-Pantone 8183 CVC, Ads/Index-Pantone 8023 CVC. The Spring Supplement was designed by Emily Doan. The book was done entirely on computer using Josten's Yeartech software.

The staff wishes to thank our excellent Josten's representative, David Baker, and our in-plant consultant, Kristine Ross. We also thank Ms. Fitzgerald (we'll miss you!), Mrs. Prothro, Mrs. Dodd, Mrs. Goins, Mrs. Washam, Mrs. Jett, Mrs. Virginia Byoune, the counselors, the teachers who handed out surveys and let us interrupt their classes to take pictures, and to our awesome artist from Josten's, Doug Thrasher. We would also like to thank Larry, Jinni and the Reflections staff and Goldbeck photography. This book would not have been possible without the dedication and hard work from Mrs. Gina Parker. Also I would like to thank my awesome staff for their hard work, their spastic personalities, and for putting up with my yelling all year long.
